

Our guiding principles

A set of principles...

- A theological foundation based upon value systems as a basis for all interactions and solutions
- Deep and meaningful understanding of community challenges and changing dynamics, from both a knowledge perspective and community experiences
- Active engagement with mutual respect and co-designing solutions
- Embracing innovation

...which shape our decisions and actions